SHOT IN SELF-DEFENSE.	Damages For Cruel Treatment.
-----------------------	------------------------------

That is What Martin Says of the Killing of Marshal Shultz.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 20.—Los Angeles, number of Marshal Shultz of Tiffin, manifests a seeming indifference as to the crime. At no time has he shown the slightest remorse. The jail is strongly guarded and no one is allowed Handout of the United States court awarded $4,500 damages to Louis Bold, a negro sailor on the Chilean ship Emma, against J. M. McLean, the officer's agent, and J. Jensen, the capt for cruel treatment, which has deprived him permanently of the use of hands.

Marlin talks freely with other prisoners and claims he killed Shulz in self-defense. He declares the case is not as bad as has been reported.

BLAZE AT SPRINGFIELD.

Legends Hotel burning, and Dayton hotel fire assistance.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Oct. 30.—The Legends hotel caught fire early this morning. The fire escaped. The Western Union telegraph office, clothing, hat and drug stores have been burned out. The roof has caved in, and Dayton has been appealed to for assistance.

A New Discovery

By a man with a large family of boys, was made not long ago.

He discovered that he was paying entirely too much profit to his clothier.

He dropped into this store "just to get prices," as he put it.

The result is that he became one of our regular customers, and dresses much better for less money.

This is just what will happen to you if you examine our goods and prices.

Our fine dress suits and overcoats, at $10, will open your eyes and your purses.

THE CITY IN BRIEF.

The county commissioners are in session today, on regular routine business.

The concreting of Prospect street has been finished and the laying of asphalt will be begun at once.

Quite a number of Marion Democrats took in the Campbell meeting at Elysian Tuesday evening.

Edward Hinds and Miss Adams will be married this evening at the home of John Adams, in Claridon township.

The Marion Manufacturing company not only declared a scrip dividend of six per cent, but a cash dividend of six per cent, as well.

Unless all signs fail the report of the grand jury will be of the utmost interest and some sensational matters will be brought to light.

About ten loads more of asphalt will finish Church street. It would have been finished yesterday but there was a break down at the plant.

The members of the city council went out to inspect State street this afternoon at 2 o'clock, accompanied by P. Kelly, of the firm of Kelly & Co.

P. Kelly & Company are making a few repairs on north State street. The driveways in several places had to be lowered and a few other places trimmed up.

There was marked democratic activity apparent today. The county committeemen and the several candidates were in conference. If anybody happens to ask you, tell them there is a pretty busy campaign on.

All preparations for the entertainments to be extended to their gentlemen friends by both the "Babies" and the "Twigs" have been completed. Both affairs will be elegant and either will be most thoroughly enjoyable.

E. C. Smith, wired from Springfield today that he was at the Hotel Lagonda at the time of the fire last night, but that he escaped unhurt. Mr. Smith was there in the interests of the insurance company and it was feared that he might have been injured at the time the roof fell in, but such was not the case.

Milton Morral, republican candidate for commissioner, was in the city today. Mr. Morral goes along quietly, conducting his campaign on the platform of minority representation on the board of commissioners, and is creating a very favorable impression. A finer man was never named for office in Marion county.

The case of John O'Ragan against C. C. Campbell was heard in the court of Squire McKinley this forenoon by a jury. O'Ragan sued Campbell for $33 wages and board. A verdict was rendered for the defendant, who proved that he had paid O'Ragan and that he was suing for time that he had not worked. Campbell having discharged him.

The Buckeye Literary Bureau and Teachers' Agency has been opened up in the office of E. C. Smith by F. C. Langley and H. S. Nichols. These young gentlemen will aid teachers in securing positions and will also make dates for lecturers and concert companies. Messrs. POLICE COURT NEWS.

For better protection there has been an organization made among the police force here. Robert Smith has been made captain of the force and all must report to him. The rules that have been adopted keep the captain informed of the whereabouts of the men at nearly all hours of the night, and they must report to him at stated hours.

The police now report at the station house every evening at 6 o'clock, and report to the captain again at 10 o'clock and 12 o'clock. At 2 a. m. the police again report to the captain, and at 5 o'clock before leaving. Any officer failing to report at 11 in the evening is considered off duty. No officer is allowed to leave his beat at any time without first getting permission of the captain. The officers will all be required to appear in full uniform at all times when on duty.

Eight tramps were lodged in the prison Tuesday night.

The new place to keep the tramps has been named Hotel Carbis, in honor of Mayor Carlos J. Nichols, and George W. Blain is to be given the general management of it. The bums will not have it quite so comfortable as they have had heretofore, but still it will be warm. It has not been opened as yet, but in a few days the tramps will find lodging there.

The mayor's office and city prison have had a thorough cleaning. The tramps were made to scrub it out Tuesday morning, and it presents a pretty fine appearance at present. Patrick McNarney has been acting as janitor for the entire summer, but Pat wasn't around Tuesday and so the tramps were made to pay for their keep in that way.

George Holbert, the sick tramp, who was at the city prison, left this morning for Bellefontaine, where he has hopes of getting work. He was much better today, and able to travel.
